Please keep the information in this brochure because you will not receive any additional information until you arrive at camp on the first day.

Camp Director:

Doug Hunt graduated from Jacksboro High School in 1994. The former honor student at Jacksboro High School was a metro-area finalist for Fellowship of Christian Athlete of the Year. As an all-around senior athlete, Hunt garnered all-district honors as a quarterback on the area football team and guard on the playoff basketball team. He also competed in the state track and field meet in the 4x400 meter relay.

Doug graduated from Eastern New Mexico University in 1999, with a Bachelor's Degree in Exercise Sport Science and a Minor in History.

Doug has been on staff at the TABC Camp of Champs, Texas Tech Lady Raider Camp, OU Lady Sooner Camp, Tarleton TexAnn Camp, USA Developmental Camp, and local camps in Lubbock ISD and Georgetown ISD.

After 12 years of coaching at Georgetown High School, Doug is excited to be back in Jacksboro as head of the Girls' Basketball program. His mission is to bring back a sense of pride that his mother, Melynn Hunt, established in the early 1990's.

Staff Includes: Doug Hunt, Starla Pittman, Lisa Richardson, Misty Little, and Melynn Hunt.

Cost and Registration: The camp fee is $40. This fee includes a basketball and camp t-shirt for each camper who is pre-registered. Make checks payable to Jacksboro High School.

Who Can Attend: Players from any school are welcome!

Where to Go: JHS main entrance.

What to Wear: Players should wear comfortable tennis shoes or basketball shoes with socks and a t-shirt and shorts. Players should tie back hair and leave all jewelry at home.

Camp Features: The camp will emphasize the fundamentals of shooting, passing, dribbling, rebounding, and individual and team offense and defense. A low coach-player ratio will guarantee personalized instruction. Players will have an opportunity to meet new friends and have fun with older players and coaches who love basketball. Special attention will be given to the development of self-confidence, motivation, and a positive attitude.
