

Evan Carter Richards

Attended JHS - 1937-1938

Richards is a native of Jacksboro and he has become a world known fashion designer. His famous house of fashion call Tiziani is located on the Via Gregoriana, a street noted for business and homes.

Richards is a graduate of North Texas State University with a major in music. His chief reason for going to Rome was to study the opera. He appeared in several Italian Operas and from this became interested in costumes and design.

He has designed clothes for such famous people as Elizabeth Taylor and Princess Grace Ranier. Today, he is considered one of the leading European designers of high fashion.
